CRUISE EXCURSION HIGHLIGHTS:

LISBON, PORTUGAL

Strung out over a series of hills facing the glistening waters of the broad estuary of the Tejo, Lisbon is one of Europe's most handsome cities. Although its modern suburbs are ungainly, the historic centre is relatively compact and easy to explore in just a day when your MSC cruise takes you to the Lisbon.

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

Split by lakes and surrounded by sea, an energetic and hip water-side vibe permeates Copenhagen, one of Northern Europe's most user-friendly (and trendy) capitals. Enjoy a photo stop at the Little Mermaid before proceeding to the Amalienborg Palace, the winter residence of the Dan-ish Royal Family. Arrive at Christiansborg Palace for a chance to view the lavish royal reception rooms and halls. The palace complex was actually rebuilt three times in the course of its history. Next up is Copenhagen's Tivoli, the famous amusement park and pleasure gardens in the middle of the city.

ST PETERSBURG, RUSSIA FED.

Located on the Neva River at the head of the Gulf of Finland on the Baltic Sea, Saint Petersburg is one of the most beautiful cities in the world and well worth a visit. From the Petrodvorets also known as Peterhof, the former summer home of Peter the Great to the famous Hermitage Museum, home to three million works of art by Italian, Dutch and Spanish artists and where we will look around the grand reception rooms of the Russian royalty.
